2018 Campbell County 4-H Jr. Camp

Campbell County 4-H Camp was a 5-day overnight camp for youth Ages 9-13 held from July 30– August 3, 2018. Over 200 youth, teens and adults spent an exciting week camping at the Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center located in the beautiful Buckingham/Appomattox State Forest.

All though the week was rainy with a few alterations in the schedule, the camp was still a fun filled experience. This year's camp theme was "Blast from the Past" based on the 70's, 80's 90's decades. Throughout the year, teen and adult leaders created decorations and planned evening events based on the theme consisting of Campfire, dances, pool party, "Minute to Win It" game show, Scavenger Hunt and Variety Show, with a guest master of ceremonies from a previous decade, Elvis! Although changed from the previously scheduled Monday to Wednesday, the yearly carnival was certainly a highlight. The carnival festivities included the always-popular inflatables and many carnival games that allowed campers to win tickets to purchase popcorn, cotton candy, snow cones and other carnival prizes. In addition, campers enjoyed their classes, which were made up of Scuba Diving, Rocketry, Cooking, Leather Crafts, Canoeing, Archery, riflery, Arts & Crafts, Sharpen Up and many more.

4-H makes learning fun! Camp allows young people the opportunity to develop independence and life skills in a cooperative group setting all the while creating memories that will last a lifetime. SAVE the Date for next summer's camp- July 15-19, 2019. We highly suggest that you send or bring in your registration as soon as possible after opening day because spaces are limited!

The Samuel M Arthur Shooting Club members represented Post 16, 4-H, Campbell County, and themselves well at the 4-H Central District Competition. The competition took place on Saturday, July 22 at Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center in Appomattox, Virginia. In addition, the club members performed well individually: Emily Happs placed 2nd in the individual junior air rifle division; Danielle Clifton placed 7th in the individual senior air rifle division. Emily Happs placed 2nd and Carol Royster placed 3rd in the junior .22 small bore division.

Michelle Happs, the Club's Coordinator said, "It was a great day for the district competition, and I am so happy with the team's achievements". Dave Happs, club leader and instructor, expressed how pleased he was to see the club members getting a chance to show their skills and having fun on top of it!

The Samuel M Arthur American Legion/4H Shooting Education Club meets every 2nd and 4th Thursdays at 6:30 pm at the American Legion, Post 16, on Greenview Drive in Lynchburg. The club is a collaborative effort between Campbell County 4-H and the American Legion Post 16. The mission of all 4-H clubs is to help young people develop skills that will help them be successful in life. This is accomplished through allowing youth a voice in their clubs. They are officers, committee leaders and members. The members work as a team as they help to make decisions for the club. Campbell County 4-H has two Shooting Clubs: Hat Creek 4-H Shooting Education Club, which meets 1st, 3rd, and 5th Thursdays and Samuel M. Arthur American Legion/4-H Shooting Education Club. In addition to basic leadership skills, each of these clubs emphasize community service and teach responsibility, self-discipline, teamwork with a focus on firearm safety and marksmanship to youth ages 9-19.

The clubs are currently seeking adult volunteers, as well as those who would be willing to become 4-H certified instructors. Youth interested in joining the Campbell County 4-H shooting clubs can contact Campbell County 4-H or the club leader for the individual Club. There is no cost to join the clubs, but members are expected to help with fundraisers sponsored by the club, which help in paying for supplies and competition match fees.
