A Vision for a Stronger Commonwealth

Our Extension agents teach Virginians how to improve their quality of life by giving them the skills to:

- Prevent chronic disease with a healthy diet
- Identify quality childcare
- Plan for home ownership
- Make good parenting decisions
- Handle and preserve food safely
- Be a wise grocery shopper
- Handle credit wisely
- Plan for elder care needs
- Manage finances successfully
- Prepare for and cope with disasters
- Manage home-based businesses

We work with other state and local agencies for many of our programs, and through these partnerships we maximize the impact and quality of our resources. Our staff and trained volunteers help build and strengthen these collaborations and extend our resources to more Virginians.

- 4-H / American Legion Shooting Education:
- 4/16 - Hosting the Western Region American Legion Junior Shooter competition
 - 5/14 - Virginia American Legion State Championship (those that qualify in the regional)
 - 7/16 - Central District 4-H Competition
 - 7/23 - Hosting Commonwealth Game (BB/Air Rifle)
 - 9/9-11 - Virginia State 4-H competition
